To whom this may concern,

Please accept this letter as a thank you for the tremendous services that your company has provided for the Liberty Science Center.

As a retired law enforcement officer, and a person who has dealt with many security companies in a variety of capacities over the course of the last 31 years, I have reached the conclusion that a good security company and the officers they provide require the combination of strength, caring and common sense. My association with IPS Associates has indicated that your company possesses these qualities in abundance.

The Liberty Science Center deals with the public on a daily basis. Your security officers innately show the sensitivity and sophistication to deal successfully with the public, the appropriate respect for disciplinary procedures and are completely honest individuals.

Your dedication, hard work, and professional services have not gone unnoticed. We are extremely pleased to have IPS on our team and look forward to building on the solid foundation of service you have shown to be the norm from your guards and everyone in the company.

Sincerely,
